The Program at first glance

Keeping up with today's fast moving environment, it's absolutely paramount for us at Doka to have highly skilled and ambitious employees. The Operations Trainee Program Asia Pacific is made for young and talented graduates/post graduates in Business Economics, Industrial Engineering or Logistics. The program targets specifically candidates, who are keen to take over a role in Operations in Kuala Lumpur after successfully completing the structured one year trainee program across Europe, Middle East and Asia Pacific.

It offers you an excellent platform for your professional and personal development. During the program you are able to decide with your mentor, which field you want to specialize in.

Detailed information about the program and it's setup:

Operations at Doka

If you enjoy to be challenged, you will be a perfect fit for our operations department at Doka. The team deals with a lot of different challenges and has many interfaces with other departments. You will deal with strategic as well as operative tasks. To name a few examples: Inventory and yard management, order processing as well as the business process improvement, contract management and material acquisition. Are you ready for those challenges?

Our expectations

We are keen to welcome highly motivated candidates, who are based in Malaysia. If you are able to answer the following questions with 'yes', you perfectly match our profile.

- You are a graduate/post graduate in Business Economics, Industrial Engineering or Logistics?
- Are you highly self-motivated and think like an entrepreneur?
- Do you have outstanding analytical skills?
- Are you open-minded, willing to learn and target-oriented?
- Do you enjoy working in a team?
- Do you like to work and connect with people from different countries, cultures and backgrounds?

After your successful completion of the trainee program you work in the Kuala Lumpur Operations Team and will be equipped to strongly contribute to the success of your local branch.

Your benefits as a trainee

- A profound knowledge base including specialisation
- Insights into different departments in the Doka Group
- Learning from Doka experts and applying your newly gained skills to reach your targets
- International work experience
- The chance to build up a global network

Chances & future possibilities

The trainee program is your first step into a successful career at Doka. You will have the chance to further develop yourself and future potential development opportunities may be for example: Operations Manager, Regional Operations Manager, Yard Operations Manager, Logistics Manager or Team Leader Commercial Operations.
